Hi again! That would be to meet at ENEA rather than CORPLA...not ENEL (although ENEL Green Energy should be included in the biz round table and ENEL can highlight the OK connection.)

Hi Mark,

We discussed the schedules at our meeting.

For the sake of optics and logistics, even if there is an audience with the Pope, it just seems like the Vatican schedule could be packed in one day.

[REDACTED] convinced me that ENEL would be a better venue than CORPLA. It is more known, and we need to have it there for relationship purposes. As an interesting side note, ENEL has installed 150 MW of wind energy in OK! <https://www.enel.com/en/media/press/d201207-enel-green-power-starts-operations-at-rocky-ridge-wind-farm-in-oklahoma-usa.html>

[Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy] P:

Thank you so much for your help during my scoping mission to Rome earlier this week. I know that we are in good hands with you at post.

Based on our meetings, I have attached the two options that we will be sharing with Administrator Pruitt's staff on Monday and with Administrator Pruitt himself on Wednesday. One option includes an audience with the Pope, the other does not. Let me know if you see anything that I missed.

Mark
